

MS01 VT04 Immunizations

[Music]

We definitely recommend making an appointment with your physician before pregnancy.

There are some immunizations that we recommend prior to pregnancy if you're not already immune to those diseases like rubella and varicella, which is chicken pox.

So check with your doctor to see if you need either of these before becoming pregnant.